

Week	Question	Learning Opportunities	Core Text	Key Events
Wow	Letters arriving from the story book characters to the children in Reception class.
8th Jan	Who are the letters from in the story?	Read the story and discuss what story characters can they see? What is a character? What story book character would you be? Letter from the Library inviting us to visit. Children to write a letter home and post it in the postbox on our visit to the Library. Maths - Subtraction	The Jolly Postman Story.	Visit to the Library to look at story books.
15th Jan	Is the wolf really bad?	Role play linked to the story. Drawing a map of the route. Red riding hood route in woodland learning - record using ICT and document. Sequence events of the story. Story map writing. Should Red Riding Hood have left the path? Who do you believe the wolf or little red riding hood? Maths - Subtraction	Red riding Hood Alternative version from the wolf's point of view.	Woodland learning Red Riding Hood story map props to find in the woods.
22nd Jan	Did Goldilocks make a good decision?	Role Play linked to story. Link to Maths measuring size and capacity. Porridge tasting with different toppings. Broken chair crime scene - immersive learning day - using ICT to record and document. Design a new chair for baby Bear. Write apology letters to baby bear from Goldilocks.	Goldilocks and The Three Bears. A new chair for baby bear.	Crime scene in the classroom. Who done it?

29th Jan	Could you help the three Billy goats gruff to cross the bridge? Is the Troll really bad?	Letter from the Billy Goats Gruff asking for help to cross the bridge. Design and build traps for the Troll. Design and build bridges for the goats using a range of materials. Talk for writing how to trap a Troll. Instruction writing how to trap a troll.	Different versions of the three Billy goats Gruff story.	Could you help the three Billy goats gruff to cross the bridge?
5th Feb		Letter from the Troll explaining he is not bad. The troll is hungry what should he eat to stay healthy? Maths - 3D shape.		Visit to Pensthorpe.