Procedure for School Closure

If we need to close the school in the event of very inclement weather you will receive a text from the school informing you that the school will be closed. You can also listen to the local radio station and the Norfolk County Council website where the school closure will be announced.

Tycoon In Schools

The tycoons have been busy creating gift bags, cards and gift tags for Christmas. With the help of the other children in school these items are now ready for sale.

Gift bags - £1.20

Cards - £ 1.00

Tags - £ 0.50 for a pack of 4.

These items will be available at the PFA shopping evening next Friday. Please visit our stall and show us support. We are raising money for equipment that will make our outdoor area at school more fun.

Hampers for the Elderly

Our Nurture group are very pleased with the kind donations that they have received so far for their Christmas Hamper project for the Elderly. The co-op have made a very generous donation and so have many parents. Please can we have all donations in by the end of November, they are requesting any new gloves, socks, hats, scarves and handkerchiefs. Any Christmas treat items such as biscuits, chocolates, Christmas pudding or mince pies etc.

PFA Christmas Shopping Event

The Christmas shopping event is fast approaching, it is on 24th November in the Sandcastle Palace Canteen from 2.30pm – 5.30pm. There will be a raffle, Christmas crafts, gifts and our £1 pint pots for sale. Please come along and support this event.

Next Week

We have a Maths open morning on 21st November from 9-10am. This is your opportunity to come into school and observe/ take part in your child's Maths lesson and see how we teach Maths in school.

On 23rd November it is the Year 1 class assembly, please come along and see what Year 1 have been learning about this term.

On 23rd November Year 5 is holding a Maths café from 2-3pm. There will be a story, some Maths and cake too!
