Year Six SAT's

We would like to say a huge well done to all the Year Six children for all their hard work with SAT's this year. They have applied themselves with amazing tenacity and have done their very best, well done everybody!

Celebration Assembly – Change of time

After half term celebration assembly will move to the new time slot of 9am, this is a permanent arrangement. If you child is to be awarded a certificate you are still very welcome to join us for the assembly at the new time. It will last approximately half an hour.

Parking

Please may we remind you that parents/ carers are not allowed to park in the staff car park, thank you for your co-operation with this matter.

Keeping up with the children – English

We are hosting this course for 5 weeks starting on Thursday 7th June. This course is designed to support parents to familiarise themselves with modern English teaching methods currently being used in schools. You will discover ways to support your child's learning at home and develop your own English skills. If you would like to find out more or book your place speak to the Children's Centre office or visit www.norfolk.gov.uk/adult learning or call 03448008020.

Live Music Tour:

The Norfolk Music Service Live Music group will be performing 'Oh I do like to be beside the seaside' set at our school on Thursday 7th June, starting at 14:00. There will be a mix of listening and participation songs for all the children to enjoy.

PFA

The children, by the time you read this, will all have enjoyed an afternoon tea to celebrate the royal wedding. Thanks to Gaynor for an epic bake-off producing over two hundred scones and to Lillian for smashing cake! The next PFA event will be the Friday 25th May the ever popular Playland Party - tickets are on sale now so come along and celebrate the end of term with a hot dog, cake and squash after enjoying a run about with your friends. All for the great price of £5
Any ideas or suggestions for the PFA can be sent via the Facebook page or by speaking to one of us in the playground. Kind regards Lucy – Chair of PFA
